“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about that wonderful hope found in the Bible. And may you draw closer to Jehovah God and His son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ As a longtime friend, classmate and clubmember of Frances, I am devastated by her illness and death. If only I and her other clubmembers had known of her illness, we could have visited her and comforted her in her travail. Good-bye, my sister. We miss you already. We shall never forget your lovely smile and hearty laugh.##imported-begin##Elmira M. Washington##imported-end##

“ Mama Chapman, Words cannot express what kind of an impact that you have had on my life in the four years that I have known you. You have encouraged me to be the best woman that I can be. The last jewel of wisdom that you left me with was, "We as a people are standing on the brink and if we but realize what is really important it is then that we will fully understand". Even at the end you were a pillar of truth and wisdom. I will miss our heart to hearts but I take comfort in knowing that an Angel watches from above....##imported-begin##Ronda Cox##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get use to. God's Word refers to it as the 'last enemy.' May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon He by means of His son Christ Jesus, will bring our enemy to nothing. (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ Ms.Chapman was my principal many years ago at George Washington Elementary School. In my adult years, I got to know her more personally, through her sister, as Ms. Frances.I was very saddened to hear of Ms. Frances' illness and was shocked to hear of her death. I am thankful for the hope that the Bible holds out for those we've lost in death. It tells us that one day "death and tears of sorrow will be no more" (Revelation 21:3,4) and that the day of a resurrection will come,as well (Acts 24:15). I hope that Ms.Frances' dear family & friends will receive comfort from such promises.##imported-begin##D. Westbrook##imported-end##

“ "GLORY AWAITS YOU" What a day it will be in glory, where you are set free. To meet and greet all your friends and family. You always took the time to teach, whom ever, and where ever you could reach. Now your time has come to be at peace. Each and everyone that hear the sound of your name, will remember you, yes you have fame. For speaking the words we did not want to hear. Like go back to school another year. As for me, I have always LOVED YOU, know matter what. Even through the hard sessions of "YOU KNOW WHAT". It made me a better me. Thank you Ms. Chapman, for you helped me see, always strive to be the best you can be. You made me feel special when you set me apart, that in which I felt right from the start. PEACE BE STILL LOVE CAROL##imported-begin##Carol E. Jackson##imported-end##
