

Frances Mary Taylor

February 11, 1940 - January 22, 2007

FRANCES M. TAYLOR was born on February 11, 1940 in Westmoland, Jamaica, West Indies. She departed this life on January 22, 2007, after a lengthy illness. She received her education at New Roads Secondary School. After completing her education she moved to Black River to work at the post office, where she met and married her husband of thirty-six years, Canute G. Taylor. In 1969, she migrated to the United States and was later joined by her husband. She worked at House in the Pines for twenty-five years, from which she retired. Frances, a.k.a. Mary, made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed. She was always a true friend and a devoted wife and mother. She leaves to mourn: her husband, Canute; two stepsons, Kenroy and Oliver Taylor; her sister, Kathleen Parkinson; her five brothers, Ferdie, Man-Man, Baboo, Shine, and Ivan; her nieces, Carol, Nadine, Joy, Grace and Melicent; nephews, Garland, Nal and Ryan; and a host of other nieces, nephews, grand-nieces and good friends.

“ I am very sorry to learn of the death of Frances. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I'm so sorry you lost your loved one in death. It's so hard to say goddbye, and so unfair that our loved ones have to depart. Jehovah God knows the pain we feel, because at great cost to himself he sacrificed his precious son Jesus, so that we could be done with sin, sickness, and death; and have an oppirtunity for everlasting life in peaceful conditions. One day, according to John 5,28,29, "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, to a ressurection of life. So please find ocmfort in God's promises, because his word never fails. Isaiah 55,11.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.###imported-begin###Senita Swann###imported-end###

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection."- This wonderful event will take place in a new world with the prospect of no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 65:17) It is my hope that you will receive much comfort and strength as you think about these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
