

Frances Elizabeth Hendrick Price

December 2, 1936 - January 8, 2021

God in His infinite wisdom saw fit to take from our midst our mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend to all.

Frances Price, known as “Auntie” and “Nellie” by family and friends quietly entered into eternal rest on January 8, 2021. She was born in Warren, North Carolina on December 2, 1937 to Sonnie and Elizabeth Hendrick.

Her mother and siblings later moved to Richmond, Virginia. She was educated in the Richmond Public School System and attended Maggie L. Walker High School.

Frances resided on "M" Street in one of the most historic neighborhoods in Richmond, “Church Hill”. She was employed by Philip Morris as a machine operator and later worked for Richmond Public Schools, where she retired after many long years of dedicated service. On March 2, 1980, Frances was baptized at Mt. Camel Baptist Church. She furthered receiving her spiritual blessings as she attended Fourth Baptist Church in Richmond.

She possessed a voracious love for her grandchild. In her leisure, she enjoyed going on Casino trips and playing cards. A game against Frances was Olympic class and futile for any opponent. She had a gentle disposition, possessing a quick wit which was glaringly forthright, yet kind, tactful and compassionate. Frances was tireless, inspiring and dependable. Frances was indeed beautiful inside and out. Her downhill spiral was short, but startling, however, the joy of eternal life she will inherit is most comforting. Auntie enjoyed family gatherings and traveling back to North Carolina anytime someone went. She had a gentle spirit that loved her family and will be missed dearly.

Frances is preceded in death by her parents, Sonnie and Elizabeth Hendrick; beloved husband, Joseph Price; two sisters, Lousie Hendrick and Viola Carter; three brothers, Leroy, Walter Sr. and Rev. Ollie Hendrick, Sr.; two nephews, Marvin and Walter, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her sweet memories: devoted daughter Valerie Price; grandson, Jantzen Price; sister, Mildred White; brother, Eddie Mack Hendrick (Judy); sister-in-law, Louise "Kay" Hendrick; brother-in-law, James Carter; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
