

Frances V. Hicks

September 28, 1932 - September 12, 2009

Frances Violetta Hicks, beloved daughter of the late Mable Maker and Frank A. Jackson, was born on August 28, 1932 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this earthly life on Saturday, September 12, 2009, after an untimely illness. "Mama", as she was affectionately called, accepted Jesus Christ as her Personal Savior at an early age. For many years, she attended ST. Ann's Church. Later in life, she moved her membership to Ark Church under the Pastorate of the Rev. Dr. J.L. Carter. She received her format education through the Baltimore City Public School System. Mama married her childhood sweetheart, the late Maurice Hicks. One child was born to this union. Mama was a dedicated employee of the State of Maryland for many years. Upon retirement, she worked at Montebello Hospital in the Department of Social Services. Mama enjoyed the love and affection she received from her family, friends, and all of her neighbors. She was loved and highly respected by the entire community, where she lived for forty-five years. She was known by both the young and the old. The residents of her neighborhood willingly took the time to give her hugs, kissed, or just a friendly greeting everyday. In the time she called her own, she loved to take trips to Atlantic City. This was one of her favorite past times. Mama will be sadly missed by all who knew her. Her legacy of love will forever be present in our minds and in our hearts. She was preceded in death by her two great nephews, Kevin Gasque and Da'von Lopez. Mama is survived by; her two loving sons, Tyrone Price and Maurice Hicks; one loving daughter, Corethea Spears; one dearly beloved daughter-in-law, "Sweetie", grandchildren, Tyriq Price, Shawnta Carter, Tony Spears, Stacey Spears, Tammi Spears, Rashida Jones and Sheri Leverette, two favorite nieces, Carolyn (Howard) Gasque and Mable Kent, niece Bernadette Banks; nephew, Gregory Banks and a host of great grandchildren, other nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Christ Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences for your loss. We all look forward to the time when mourning will be a thing of the past because 1Cor15:26 talks about a time when the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing. May you find comfort in Jehovah God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to Ms. Hicks' family and friends. The loss of one so dearly loved can be painfull and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to First Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie-Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolences to you all, the family and friends.Lossing a dear love one after 77 years really breaks the circle for real. It hurts our hearts however our heavenly father is there with all the comfort needed to keep on the journey of life ahead, 1 Peter 5:7, 2 Cor.11:11. In the near future the resurrection will be the best thing to happen John 5:28. I hope these few words will be uplifting to read.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##
