

Frances L. Wilson

February 14, 1944 - April 6, 2019

On April 6, 2019, Angels softly called the beloved FRANCES LUCILLE WILSON home at the age of seventy-five. She was born on February 14, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Linwood Wonson and Elizabeth Iverson. Frances "Lucille", as she was affectionately referred to by friends, graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in Baltimore, Maryland.

The soft spoken Lucille was a cherished mother who symbolized love for her entire family. Her warmth and presence was recognized by everyone she met. Lucille's support of her children ran deep enjoying them play baseball, various activities and continued with her grandchildren. Her most memorable past time included watching soap operas, Family Feud, collecting elephants, hand and line dancing, cooking, crossword puzzles, The Baltimore Orioles, The Ravens, tennis and over indulging on Maryland crabs.

At the age of thirteen, Joe Wilson was smitten by the eleven-year-old Lucille Wonson and offered to share his peanut butter cheese crackers. Their love story began, sealed in marriage on August 10, 1963. Lucille's unconditional love for Joseph never wavered. She was continuously faithful, kind, gentle and generous without fail.

She is preceded in death by two brothers, Linwood and James Wonson; and her sister, Shirley Wonson.

Lucille leaves to cherish her memory: her loving husband, Joseph; three sons, Ronald Wilson (Karen), Joseph Paul Wilson, Anthony L. Wilson (Shawn Michelle); her daughter, Stephanie Wilson-Barber (Darryle); thirteen grandchildren, Teela, Shante, Brittaney, Ronald II, Jasmine, Tifani, Joseph II, Kiana, Cherich, Anthony Jr., Eli, Jeffrey and Blake; four great-grandchildren; her nephew, Kevin Davis; and a host of nieces nephews, cousins and friends.
