

Francine T. Jenkins

February 1, 1957 - March 31, 2006

FRANCINE TIWANA JENKINS daughter of Eleanor Frances Jenkins and Paul Lewis (both deceased) was born on February 1, 1957, in Baltimore, Maryland and made a peaceful transition, after a lengthy illness, on March 31, 2006. Francine was educated in the Baltimore Public School System and as a student, worked as an assistant in Operation Champ. She was a member of Immanuel Temple AME and was baptized, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost on April 10, 2005. One of her greatest pleasures was to attend church with her grandson Cordé who was the love of her life and who was also baptized at the age of two, but her greatest joy was her daughter Dé Sadre Denise Jenkins. Anyone who knew “Juicy” knew of her love for hand dancing, singing and writing. She also had a special love for Veronica, who became her friend at the age of nine and later through a special bond they became blood sisters. This friendship blossomed and continued throughout the years. Everyone has a special place within the family structure and Francine was blessed to have had two. Although she was their niece she was raised along with her aunts and uncles as their sister, Helease, Francine and Joanne, were not just family they shared lifelong special friendships. Anyone who ever had the opportunity to know Francine remembers her willingness to help others, her affectionate smile and her love for hats, scarves and ICE. Although her physical presence is no more, Francine will live on in our hearts and minds forever. She leaves to cherish her memories, daughter, De’Sadra D. Jenkins; grandson; Cordé M. Roberts; sister, Joanne Lewis, two brothers, Tony and Paul Lewis; three aunts, Mary Johns, Lola and Helease Jenkins; four uncles, Arthur Lewis, Walter, William and Gregory Jenkins; a special cousin Trinkka; best friend Veronica Phillips and a host of family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Francine T. Jenkins

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the Jenkins Family, We were sorry to hear about the death of Francine, “Cast all your care upon Him for He careth for you.” I Peter 5:7 May God comfort you in His loving arms and fill you with His peace during this difficult time and in the days to come. The family is in the prayers of many. Look to the hills which cometh your strength. The Royster & Thornton Family##imported-begin##Brenda Royster and Family##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. As we deal with the ravages of death, we need comfort and strength, and the Bible gives us just that. Revelation 21:4 promises us that God will “wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”##imported-begin##Debbie S.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ The lost of a loved one has an overwhelming impact on all and especially the immediate family. The pain and suffering alone is very hard to bear and no one should ever have to experience such a dark and sad time in life. However it seems to be no escape no matter the cause. I extend my deepest sympathy and thoughts of encouragement from the one who can remove such pain and grieving sorrow from the human family, that one is the Almighty Jehovah God. Jehovah is saddened over how life has turned due to the course of actions of our first parents Adam and Eve. However, because Jehovah is a loving God he has promised the offspring's of Adam and Eve a way out. In the near future He said death will be no more and the things that causes death will be no more according to Rev 21:3-4. This promise of life has always been Jehovah God's purpose for mankind according to Titus 1:2. This is a promise he can't lie about. Hebrews 6: 18 states of Jehovah God, it is impossible for him to lie. That is an encouraging hope. Also for those who suffer with all sorts of illness Isaiah 33:24 says it will come a time no one on the earth will say they are sick and the lame will walk Isaiah 35:6, the blind will see, Isaiah 35:5 and the greatest promise of them all will be when Jesus Christ will call all those in the memorial tombs to come out. Yes our loved ones will be blessed with a resurrection to life right here on earth. John 5:28-29 Yes Jehovah will resurrect those back to life to enjoy everlasting life with all their families and friends Ps 37: 10 states the meek will inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Ps 37:29. It's truly understandable since our heavenly father created the earth for man to live according to Isaiah 45:18. We can truly trust in God's written word because nothing he says will not return without results Isaiah 55:11. So we can dry our eyes due to the tears of sadness but tears of joy will flow when we can once again enjoy the lives of our loved ones temporarily lost to death.##imported-begin##B
Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ It's still hard to even begin that you are know longer physically with us. You kind of think that a person is going to forever be here, so you have no idea or can imagine what life will be like when they are gone. I/we miss you so much, it is like you have lost one of your limbs, cause you are so use to having the person there. I love you, Juicy Mouth, See you in the Soon. Aunt Muff###imported-begin###lola jenkins###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ No matter how or why we lose a loved one, It's the worst pain any family can go through. It's a natural desire to want our loved ones here with us forever, and very soon God is going to satisfy that desire. He gave his precious son so that all could obtain to everlasting life by having their sins blotted out. We die because this is the legacy we inherited from our foreparents Adam and Eve. 1st Cor.15:22 says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." So we have that sure hope of seeing our loved ones again by means of the ressurection. John 5:28,29. I hope these promises from Jehovah God comfort you and bring you peace.###imported-begin###R Johnaon###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.###imported-begin###Carter###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ May I send my condolences to you all, the family & friends. Losing a dear love in death breaks circle of life. Understandably, we all hurt and sad when a loved one die. Imagine the happiness that will be enjoyed when the dead loved ones are resurrected as John 5:28 say. Knowing that other makes a big different. I am looking forward to the resurrection in the near future. I hope these few words will proved to be postive to read. May all the cherish times shared with Francine and the love of her life, her grand son & dauther support you all through like jouney in the days coming.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM