

Frank B. Clark

July 21, 1913 - August 18, 2006

FRANK CLARK SR., the youngest child of the late Alice and Frank Clark, was born July 21, 1913, in Wedgefield, South Carolina. In 1932, Frank was united in holy matrimony to the late Pearl Clark. In that beautiful relationship, God blessed them with five sons (two deceased, Willie and Albert) and five daughters (one deceased, Alice Marie). Frank and his late wife Pearl moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1940. Together they joined the Gillis Memorial Christian Community Church in 1944. Frank received Jesus Christ as his personal Savior early in his life. In 1941, Frank became employed at the waterfront as a longshoreman. He worked in this field for forty years and in June 1981, he retired. Frank was joined in the holy covenant of marriage with Katie Shaw on November 9, 1989. They became members of the Power of Faith Church in 1992. Frank's legacy is that he was a child of the Most High King and he was a family man. He loved God and God loved him. He loved his family and his family loved him. To God be the glory! Frank leaves to cherish his memory: his loving and faithful wife, Katie; three sons, Alfred, Frank Jr. and Joseph Clark; four daughters, Melvina Brown, Pearl Hopkins, Elder Gloria Davis and Delores Davis; three stepchildren, Barbara Shaw, Willie Shaw III and Janet Brunson; one son-in-law, Harry Brown; five daughters-in-law, Mary, Della, Ann, Connie Clark and Ilene Shaheed; one brother-in-law, Burnie Rhodes; forty grandchildren, eighty-nine great-grandchildren, fourteen great-great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, his church family and friends.

“ My sincere condolences goes out to your family. May you find comfort in God's Word about the resurrection. Jesus demonstrated the power of the resurrection at John 11:38-44 with Lazarus. May this prove to be a source of comfort to you at this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Although he lived a long and full life the Bible promises even more- the hope of life eternal. John 11:25- "Jesus said to her: I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you receive much comfort and strength as you ponder over these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. Please read and find comfort in John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3,4. God promises to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Hi! Clark's! May you all take comfort in knowing that others care and know the feeling of losing someone in death. Mr. Frank lived to a great age of 94 years and it will soon be a years since his death. Mr. Frank did as the bible say at Ps.90:10, some may live to 70 years and others because of special mightest 80 years. Think what life will be like to live forever, forever, never dying. The bible hope will soon come ture. I hope these thoughts were uplifting to you all. Sincerely, Lillian.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##
