

Frank C. Brown

May 28, 1960 - April 5, 2005

Frank Cephas Brown was born May 28, 1960, in Calvert County, Maryland, son of Shirley Ann Campbell, and the late Irving Lafayette Brown, Jr. and the late Roosevelt Campbell (stepfather). He was called to eternal rest on Tuesday, April 5, 2005. Frank was educated in Baltimore City public schools. He went to nursing school, he was a skillful person and worked in various fields of employment. His last venture in employment was home improvement. Known to many family and friends as "Frankie", he had the type of spirit that grew on people. He had a heart of gold and never hesitated to help anyone. He loved cooking and thought of himself as a "master chef". He was friendly to all and anyone. He loved all types of music. Frankie also treasured being the center of attention. Frankie enjoyed good gospel music. He had discovered that praising God in songs lifted his spirit, cleared his head and opened a place for the Holy Spirit to speak to him. He leaves behind his long-term companion of twenty-four years, the love of his life, Debra J. Johnson; and from that union one son, Neil W. Brown. Frankie, We love you and will miss you dearly. Frankie was a loving son, brother, father, stepfather, and friend. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Shirley A. Campbell; son, Neil W. Brown; four sisters, Diane Byrd, Yvette Brown, Eness Brown and Tiffany Campbell; grandmother, Minnie Belle Rowe; long-term companion, Debra J. Johnson; stepdaughters, Neaja A. Johnson and Nina A. Johnson; brothers-in-law, Millard Brown and Herbert Byrd; stepsisters, Angary Campbell, Patricia Lucas, Renee Campbell, and Charlene McNeil; stepbrother, Kenny Campbell; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I send my condolences to the family for the loss of your loved one. The Bible also offers us condolence. John 5:28,29 talks about a resurrection of the righteous and unrighteous. Also, Rev. 21:3,4 describes a time when there will be no more death or sickness. May you be comforted by the God of tender mercies and by those scriptures.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ Frankie/Dad -- You will be missed so much. It will be weird coming to the house and not seeing you sitting in the living room, with the volume on full blast. I am at a loss for words it is so hard. You will always be in my heart. I love you Dad...where ever you are keep watch over all of us.##imported-begin##Nina##imported-end##
