

Frank Irving Carter Jr.

January 23, 1958 - April 23, 2020

Frank Irving Carter Jr., son of Helen Crockett and the late Frank I. Carter Sr., was born on January 23, 1958, in Richmond, Virginia. He is preceded in death by his father, Frank Irving Carter, Sr, and sister, Sandra Carter-Norris.

He was educated in the Henrico County School system, where he was a proud graduate of Highland Springs High School and furthered his education at J. Sargeant Reynolds in Henrico, Virginia.

He retired from United Parcel Service and continued to serve the community as a volunteer at hospitals, and various medical facilities and organizations in Richmond and surrounding counties.

Frank gave his life to the Lord at an early age. He served as a member of Cedar Street Baptist Church of God and was a member of various choirs at Cedar Street for many years.

He loved life and was very generous. Frank adored being with family and friends. He loved traveling, entertaining, music, dancing, cooking, and getting dressed up for any occasion. As a die-hard Dallas Cowboys fan, he was always cheering on "dem Cowboys."

Frank leaves cherished memory to his daughter, Alayna Jade Carter; mother, Helen Crockett; sister, Cynthia Carter-McReynolds (Kevin); brother, Anthony Carter; one niece; several nephews; a host of cousins and friends.

He will truly be missed by all.

“ Cousin Frank was definitely an inspiration. Working for FedEx instead of UPS..always gave us some fun conversation and jabs. He always had a great energy and was always sharp as a knife. Even after a horrific accident he still kept his swagger and sense of humor. We will never forget you Cousin Frank.

“ Gone but not forgotten. That beautiful will last forever. He was a very sweet soul. He loved to look good. Had shoes to match all of his many suits. Be was a father that loved his daughter, a son who respected and loved his mother, a brother who loved to travel with his sisters a d a brother who loved to visit his younger brother. He was one who loved our Almighty God

“ Very kind person who was brilliant, calm and always willing to share. Frank like to dress up too. But most importantly Frank loved God.
When I couldn't sleep and had reflux he gave me some great advice on reducing acid burn. He was funny and fun. As I drove around Richmond helping Mom today I couldn't stop thinking about Grand and the uplift he brought to my life. He was kind of like a big brother.
He shared his wisdom and zeal for life freely. Gone too soon.
