

Frank Clinton Tucker

September 27, 1935 - April 2, 2010

FRANK CLINTON TUCKER, son of the late McKinly and Mariah Tucker, was born on September 27, 1935. He quietly departed this life on April 2, 2010 after a lengthy illness. Frank, affectionately known as Clinton, was born in Farmville, Virginia where he was educated. He also served in the United States Armed Forces. In 1956 he married Addie Watson. This union produced four children. He came to Baltimore and worked as a cook for many years. Clinton gave his life to Christ and joined Zion Baptist Church where he was a faithful servant to God and a member of the Music Ministry. He leaves to cherish his memory: four children, Loretta Wood (James Wood, Jr.), Rhonda Goldman, Bernadine Miller of Farmville, Virginia and Stephon Tucker of Portland, Oregon; seventeen grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren; two sisters, Ola Bagley and Dorothy Brown of Baltimore; a devoted niece, his church family, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
