

Frank Cox

September 11, 1960 - June 10, 2003

Frank W. Cox III went home to be with the Lord, whom he loved dearly, on June 10, 2003. "Wisdom is of the Lord," he always said, "and to get it you have to ACCEPT Him, LOVE Him and KNOW Him." He received his education in the Baltimore public schools. He attended Bethel A.M.E. Church new beginners class. Mr. Cox loved the Lord and he told of Jesus everywhere he went. He was really a people person. Frank W. Cox III is survived by: his mother, Jean Cox Pender and father, Frank W. Cox; daughter, Valarie Lewis; three sisters, Gayle C. Cole, Francine Brunson, Kimberly Cox; devoted brother, Keith Prevard Cox; three aunts, one uncle, a host of nieces, nephews and cousins. He is the great-uncle of three.
