“ Hi Pop Pop I am 22 years old now almost 23 and I graduated from college in May. I have a masters in business organizational communications. I am back in school to get my criminal justice degree so then I can be a lawyer I got a job full-time to I did it all by myself, I work in HR and a computer company. It's honestly pretty cool. I like it a lot my plans to stay there so I can pay my way through my second degree in law school and then see what kind of opportunities presented self to me. I'm planning on buying my first car still not too sure what kind of car I want but some thing reliable probably something that's gonna be cute too lol give me thinking about you and nanny a lot lately and wondering what you guys are up to Justins doing really good to you be proud of him when he really changed his life around I'm really proud of him he's got a girlfriend that he's had for a while she's really nice. Her name is Claire. I think you would've really liked her. I'm wondering what my future has in store for me I wish you were here to give me a sense of direction I think that is gonna be a good path for me , you and Nanny are the reason why I want to be a lawyer I don't think it's fair that people are judged without getting the full story from them. Whether it be based on their skin or something that they did when they were younger and I don't think it's fair. And I think that people need someone that's going to fight for them. I don't think that the little guy should be picked on by bigger people and I got through my first 30 days at work though which is pretty cool my first full-time job variance for what I want to do, I don't get to help people in a long aspects were doing a try still get to help people which makes me very happy , I love you Pop Pop.

“ Hi Pop Pop I'm 20 now almost 21 I'm going into my junior year of college! I was scouted for tennis and am entering my third season. I'm still working on the law school, I was supposed to take my entrance exam but it was not working and that's just too long of a story to tell. But now I'm dating this guy named Sam he's honestly a big nerd. He reminds me a lot of dad which is kinda funny. Also my mom Kelly (muff) is getting married to Jason in July, he's a good guy for her honestly. I feel like you and Nanny were with Justin this week in his accident. I won't admit it but I'd be lost without my big brother I really do look up to him I always have. I hope one day I can be someone he's proud of. Thank you so much for saving him in his time of need I'm not ready to know a world without him. I love you pop pop until we meet again ❤️

“ Hi Pop-Pop I miss you so much. I'm going to Assumption University in the fall. I'm going to be in a 3+3 program so I can start law school during my senior year. I got the biggest scholarship at the school because of all of the community service I like to do. Dad always says how proud you would be of me now. I miss you and I hope you and Nanny are safe and together💕. Don't worry I'll keep a eye on dad.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
