“ You have my deepest sympathy on the passing of your dear loved one. May you find comfort and hope in the scripture found at Acts 24:15 which says, "I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Please keep these thoughts close to your heart, because they will without fail come true. One day we will see our loved ones come back to life.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ *Uncle Frank will be dearly missed. Our thoughts and prayers remain with his family. It's interesting how in the toughest times God gives you an unbelievable strength to get through. Know that when all is said and done; and everything is quiet and still you will still have the memories of Uncle Frank and the strength of God to give you peace and joy. “ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 informs us that our enemy death will be destroyed. Acts 24:15 promises- "there is going to be a resurrection". Many will return to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. May you receive much comfort and strength as you reflect on these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
