

Frank Fernandez

October 19, 1920 - March 3, 2013

FRANK FERNANDEZ, son of the late Henry and Zeloar Fernandez, was born on October 19, 1920 in Jonesville, South Carolina. He departed this life suddenly on March 2, 2013.

He was educated in the Sedar Grove Public School System in Jonesville, South Carolina and was a member of Sedar Grove Baptist Church. He entered CC Camp, until he was drafted into the United States Army. During his tour of duty, he participated in the D-Day Invasion and received an honorable discharge.

After coming to Baltimore, Maryland he met and married the love of his life; the former Carrie Cherry, who preceded him in death. From this union, one daughter was born, Margaret Ann.

Frank retired from J. L. Clark Manufacturing Company after forty-five years.

Frank loved to go fishing with his wife and friends every weekend; traveling from Conowingo Dam to the Eastern Shore. Their home was always open to family members that were traveling. He enjoyed playing Bid-Wisk with family and friends, as well as watching wrestling on television. Frank also loved teasing and telling jokes, keeping family and friends laughing. He loved his house and sitting on the front porch talking with neighbors, especially in the spring and in the summer time. He attended Kingsway Bible Baptist Church. Frank made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man.

Frank was preceded in death by: one grandson, Gary Randolph.

He leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Margaret Ann Randolph; one grandson, Carl Antonio (Tony) Randolph; one sister, Mrs. Kathleen Hazelton of Delray Beach, Florida; one sister-in-law, Mrs. Atlee Bowie of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews.

With special thanks to John Henry, Willie Bernard, Tim, Bessie, Genova and Sandra.

“ To the family of Frank Fernandez:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
