“ I send my deepest condolences to the family at this most difficult time. May the God of all comfort be with you, and give you the strength to endure in your sorrow. Losing a family member is the most saddest thing we ever have to go through in this life, but God has not forgotten them, and he knows the pain death brings to us. That is why he gives us this assurance, "Like a man whom his mother keeps comforting, so I shall keep comforting you people. Isaiah 66:13. One day the dead will awaken from the sleep of death, because they will hear the voice of Jesus, and they will come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. The time is also coming when sickness, violence, and death will be a thing of the past. Jehovah promises at Isaiah 65:17: "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be brought to mind; neither will they come up into the heart." So even the memory of this violent, sad world will be forgotten, because God promises to make all things new. Rev 21:3-5, Psalm 37:10,11. One day if we are faithful, we will see our loved ones again. May you be comforted by the hope of the resurrection. John 11:25##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. It is only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again since God put time indefinite into our hearts (Eccl. 3:11). The bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
