

Frank Gettis

October 1, 1913 - April 27, 2002

Frank Gettis, son of the late Frank and Ethel Gettis was born October 1, 1913 in Jacksonville, Florida. He departed this life on April 27, 2002 after a lengthy illness. Bubba as he was fondly called received his education from public schools in Florence, South Carolina. He lived in New York City from 1930-1986 until his health failed. Frank was a quiet, gentle, hardworking man that possessed a big heart and an enormous gift of sharing to his family and friends. His greatest past time pleasure was baseball; he loved "The Yankees." Frank was married to the late Ollie Mae Johnson Gettis. Frank leaves to mourn: one son, Frank Gettis; three daughters, Barbara Neale, Gloria Gettis-Mason and Linda Stancil, all of Baltimore, Md.; one sister, Lucy Peeples of Bronx, New York; five grandchildren, four great grandchildren, one niece, one nephew and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
