

Frank Smothers Holly III

June 6, 1982 - July 9, 2016

Frank Smothers Holly, III was born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 6, 1982 to Frank Holly Jr. and T. Joann Holly. His parents were overjoyed. Frank was born on Sunday, and his parents dedicated him to God.

Frank was a very verbose and inquisitive little boy who was always exploring and asking questions. Many times getting into conversations and situations that didn't concern him. Long before he started school, he thought he was grown.

Frank was educated in the schools of Baltimore City and Baltimore County. Frank enjoyed Pop Warner football and bowling in the Miles "Bunky" James Youth League. Frank was very likeable and he made friends wherever he went. He also had an uncanny way of getting along with adults as well. He was affectionately known as "Nitty" and by his friends and "Francis M. Hayted" on social media.

Frank was a member of Bethel AME church and was baptized by Bishop John Bryant. He attended Sunday School and was a member of the Angel Choir. In later years, he moved his membership to the Empowerment Temple along with his parents.

Although he did not attend college, Frank went to work and became a skilled machine operator. He worked for Solo Cup Company, Kaydon, Inc. and Consolidated Container Company.

Frank was an avid sports fan who enjoyed watching football, basketball, baseball and boxing. He also enjoyed playing pool. There wasn't a day that he wasn't some sporting event.

On July 9, 2016, Frank went home to be with the Lord.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents; Frank Holly, Sr. and Fannie E. Holly; his maternal grandparents Nathaniel B. Cole, Sr. and Mary V. Bouldin.

He leaves to cherish his memory; one son, Dylan Joshua Holly, his parents, Frank S Holly, Jr. and T. Joann Holly; two sisters; Dawn L. and Robin C. Holly; nephew, Corey (Patrice) Garrison; niece, Morgan DeGraffinried; aunts; Margaurite (Joe) Costello, Natalie Cole D Ellen Cook, Brenda Wilson, uncles; Nathaniel (Bernice) Cole Jr., Glenn (Alberta) Cole and Gary Cole, Grandparents, John Stephens and Dorothy Chambers, many cousins, friends, and extended family members.
