

Frank T. Johnson Jr.

October 25, 1950 - January 21, 2012

FRANK THOMAS JOHNSON, JR., son of Doris Johnson and the late Frank T. Johnson, Sr. was born on October 25, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 21, 2012.

Though his childhood Frank was guided and deeply cherished by his mother, Doris and maternal grandmother, Georgine Johnson. These women instilled in Frank to be a strong, independent, and hardworking man. A lifelong resident of Baltimore, he was a proud graduate of the Carver Vocational Technical High School. He was a member of the final class of 1969, before Carver moved from Lafayette Avenue to Bentalou and Presstman Streets. Frank began his work career at Read's Drugstore while in High School and shortly after graduation Frank continued his career as well respected employee of Bethlehem Steel in Sparrows Point, Maryland. He retired in 2001. Not able to stay still, he went to work for Beth Tfiloh Dahan Community School in their Maintenance Department where he worked for ten years. He also worked part-time at The Law Office of William A. Dorsey and Associates for over fifteen years. One of Frank's major philosophies was "Get a job, keep a job and make no excuses".

Frank enjoyed spending time with his friends and family and was immensely proud of his daughter, Ashlee and all of her great accomplishments. Frank had a style of his own, and remained old school. In his leisure time he enjoyed watched television, classic movies and listening to his collection of vinyl records. He loved Jazz and Frank Sinatra and lived his life based on the famous song, "I Did It My Way".

Frank leaves to cherish his memory: daughter, Ashlee Johnson; mother Doris Johnson; brother, Bruce Johnson I; sister-in-law, Alia Johnson; nieces, Raven and Ava Johnson; nephew, Bruce Johnson, II; his godmother, Doris Lynch; and lifelong treasured friends, Mr. and Mrs. Williams and Betty Dorsey; as well as a host of other family and friends.

“ ASHLEY,

Please accept our sympathy with the loss of your dad. I have only known your father for a short time, but he always had a conversation and a smile. He loved to talk about life and his beautiful daughter. He will truly be missed in the Randallstown community.

We will keep you in our prayer,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

I will always remember Frank, with a big beautiful smile, his fun loving outgoing personality. He was very good friends with my neighbor that lives in my building and that's how I got to know him. There were many times, he was on the porch with my neighbors and we would chat forever when I would walk outside. He enlightened our neighborhood and enlightened me with his presence - and always enlightened my heart when we spoke. He loved Beth Tfiloh and always asked about my family as they are members there. He was so passionate about his job and Beth Tfiloh and life. It was always lots of laughter and joy with Frank; it was very sad to see him today, but I choose to remember the gung ho loving fun person he was. When you saw Frank he was a ray of light. God bless you Frank. You have no idea of how much your presence in my neighborhood has meant to me. You were and always will be the shining star that brightened my day. And I am truly grateful you gave me that gift. May you rest in beautiful peace.

To the Johnson Family, we all are going to miss him very, very much. I have known him since 1992. He is a very close friend of mine and I will keep the Johnson family in my prayer and to Ashley. Your father loves you very very much. Frank, I will always cherish our memories and our great times and moments together. I miss you so much. You will always be in my heart forever and ever. Much Love, Bertha
