“ Dear Family, I am very sorry I was not able to attend Uncle Frank's funeral today. As much as I wanted to come to honor him and my father's side of my family, I just could not make it from Chapel Hill, NC.I find I am still sorting out the challenges resulting from the loss my husband Dick in March. Much Love and Comfort to you all, Brenda##imported-begin##Brenda Brown Schoonover##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Brown. He lived a long time according to today's life span, but it is God's desire that we all live eternally without ever dying at all. When he created Adam he gave him the hope of everlasting life if only he was obedient. Sadly, he lost out on eternal life for himself and his offspring. Yet God's purpose has not changed. He still wants all of us to live forever in peaceful and secure conditions. So this is why he sent us his son, Jesus, so that through his precious blood we might obtain to everlasting life. 1st Cor 15:22 makes this wonderful promise; "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive. One day we have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life. May you find much comfort in the promises of Jehovah God found in the bible, and may your cherished memories of Frank help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
