

Frank L. Williams

February 28, 1942 - June 21, 2008

FRANK LEWIS WILLIAMS (fondly known as "Babybrother"), son of the the John F. and Virginia E. Williams, was born on February 28, 1942 in Washington, D.C. He departed this life on June 21, 2008 after an illness. Frank grew up in the community of Cherry Hill. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior at a young age. He received his education in the public schools of Baltimore, Maryland. Frank served in the United States Army and his tour of duty included the United States and Thailand. He was honorably discharged in 1965. Frank married Barbara Simmons in 1969. Frank was employed with the Baltimore City Sanitation Department from 1979 until his retirement. Frank was a loving father and he enjoyed every minute he spent with his kids. Frank loved family's cook outs, card playing and horse racing. Pimilco was one of his favorite places to be, and on opening day we all knew where to find him. Frank touched many lives and few will forget his generosity and loyalty. He loved his friends and they could always depend on him. Somehow, Frank always knew what to say or not to say to comfort a loved one. Frank also loved his own quiet time. Frank was a "Cool guy" and very meticulous in his appearance. Frank's son Frank Williams and brother Ralph R. Staten preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn: his children, Frank Pinder, Jimmy Rhodes, Ronald Cann, Towanda Friday and Falander Williams; one son-in-law, Steadmand Friday; one daughter-in-law, Edna Pinder; his older brother, Richard Williams and his younger sister, Brenda Williams; his loving fiancée, Athena Bridges; his good friend and mother of his children, Annette Rhondes; twelve grandchildren; one uncle, Robert Williams, and one aunt, Pauline Williams in Detroit, Michigan; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and extended family.

Tribute Wall

“ Frank L. Williams

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ May I send heartfelt sympathy to you all in your circle of life being broken. Mr. Frank drove the sanitation truck for the cleaning of my block on trash day and had a smile for the block. It is wonderful to know that in the near future no one will ever die at all, Isa.25:8 say. We will be able to live forever. We all long for better times and in the near future we will be able to enjoy by doing as John 17:3 say. May time help to heal some of the pain and hurt of lossing a love like Mr. Frank.I hope these thoughts will be postive to read.##imported-begin##L.D.C##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. One day the bible promises there will be no more sickness, death, or pain on this earth, because Isaiah 25:8 lets us know that Jehovah God will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Even more wonderful is the promise that the dead will be brought back to life. John 5:28,29 says that all those who are in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of the son of God, and they will come back to life. May the scriptures be a wonderful source of comfort to you to heal your hearts, and may your cheirshed memories of Frank bring a smile to your face, and help you to cope in the days ahead. I would like to share with you more comforting thoughts concerning God"s purpose, so please contact me on my e-mail##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Family, My sincere condolences goes out to you. May you find comfort in Almighty God promises at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3-5. Please take the time to read those promises because it will give you the courage and strength to cope during this time of bereavement.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ As time gently eases your grief, may beautiful memories restore the joy that has been taken from your heart. Our Deepest Sympathy, The Gholston Family Marvin Sr., Tammy, Ashley & Corey##imported-begin##GholstonFamily##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM