“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy goes to your family on the recent death of your loved one. Death really hits hard. it's something that we can never get used to. I pray that the scriptures can bring you comfort at this time. God promises us at Acts 24:15 that all who have died will be brought back to life to be with their family once again, because of his great love for mankind. This is why he sent his son to the earth to die and pay the ransom price to release us from the scourge of sin and death. The bible says that in Adam all are dying, but in Christ all will be made alive. I hope the wonderful promises of God comforts you.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
