

Frank Junious Palmer Sr.

April 4, 1939 - June 7, 2023

Frank J. Palmer, Sr., 84, of Baltimore, Maryland transitioned from this life on June 7, 2023. He was born in Halifax County, Virginia to the late John Herman Palmer and Maggie (Hawkins) Palmer. He was skilled in masonry, and he was a proud, card-carrying member of the Union. He worked in construction on jobs that included iconic structures and landmarks that are resident in Baltimore's famed Inner Harbor.

In retirement, he continued his duties as a provider and as a caregiver to his beloved wife, Ann. He also enjoyed playing the lottery and watching horse racing at the world renown Pimlico Race Course; he developed an insatiable appetite for watching cable news while becoming a deft critic of local and world news.

He is predeceased by his second son, Freddie Anthony Palmer; his brothers: Walter Palmer, James Palmer, Willie Palmer; his sister, Ireatha Palmer Sassafras.

He is survived by his loving wife, Ruth Ann Saunders Palmer; his children: Frank J. Palmer, Jr., Andrew (Drew) P. Palmer (Gwen), Derrick F. Palmer (Cynthia), Dan H. Palmer, Bryant J. Palmer; his grandchildren: granddaughters, Garnette E. Gardner (H. Carson Gardner III) and Drew Kristine L. Wood-Palmer; his great-granddaughter, Marli Joyce; his brother, Johnny Palmer; his sisters, Ann Palmer Reid (Raymond) and Joan Palmer Wilson (Eugene). A host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.
