“ Mr. Frank was my neighbor whom I had good conversation with when I saw him out either going some where or just wiping down his truck. I moved next door to Mr. Frank in March and when we meet up we would talk about the Lord and the bible. He was really into his bible, which we all should be. During his last days at Marvin's Garden he called upon me for assistance and I tried my best to do what I could for him. The last conversation with him was trying to get him to eat, because he had became very weak.. You will be missed here at Marvin's Garden. Rest in Peace
