FRANK WILSON THOMAS, son of the late Mattie M. and Wilson, was born on February 17, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. Frank departed this life on November 24, 2012.

Frank or Billie Dee as he was called, received his education at Southern High School in Baltimore, Maryland. After high school, Frank became employed at Giani's Restaurant located in Harborplace (downtown Baltimore). After working as a waiter for several years, he gained employment with Francis Gallagher Services where he worked for many years until his health began to fail and he could no longer work.

Frank was baptized in Jesus' name at Nazarene Apostolic Church in 1962 under the leadership of the late Pastor Thomas Harris and was filled with the Holy Ghost. Later in life when the family moved to Cherry Hill, Frank became a member of First Baptist Church of Cherry Hill.

After becoming a young adult, he moved his membership to Love, Faith and Deliverance Church of Christ and stayed with this ministry until his health began to fail and could no longer let him attend services. Frank would stay in touch with the church throughout. The new pastor, Elder Corey Hatchet, who just a week ago paid Frank a home visit and prayed with him. Frank was a lover of clothes and was a great dresser. He would dress sharp from head to toe with the latest fashions.

Frank leaves to cherish his memory: two children, Ziair'e and Tyler Terrell, and their mother Zakia; three brothers, Bruce, Lauris and Reginald; sister, Cynthia; father, Wilson; godmother, Dorothy Lewis; three godbrothers, Ronnie, Robert and Anthony; godsister, Rhonda; uncle, Harford Thomas; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
