

Frank T Williams Jr.

May 28, 1951 - December 15, 2010

Frank Theodore Williams, Jr. was born on May 26, 1951 to the late Nellie Green and the late Frank Williams, Sr. on December 15, 2010, God called him home to rest. Frank was affectionately known as “Junior” and was called “Tank” by his sisters and brothers. Frank loved his family and friends. He will be dearly missed; especially by his daughter, Tawanda Williamson, who stood by his side; his son Damon A. Williams, Sr. and his grandson Jamal Everette, who loved him with all of their heart. Frank had a special relationship with each of his sisters and brothers, nieces and nephews and all of the family.

Frank was education educated in the Baltimore city public school system. He was a member of the YMCA and boy scouts of America. He carried himself with confidence and was always busy and had somewhere to go. He wanted the best for himself and most of all; he wanted the best for his children, nephews and nieces, and for all of his family. He loved to tell jokes, listen to good music and watch scary movies. He also liked to cook and he always had a plate of food ready for his nieces, tiny, when she stopped by mama's house after school. Frank rededicated his life to Christ eight years ago and while he was not perfect, he walked with God until the day he was called home.

“ My daddy came to me last night in my dream. He came to me thru his cremation. His face appeared thru his ashes. First his eyes came thru, then his nose, then his mustache, then his mouth with a smile to let me know that he is okay!!! I miss you so much daddy. Love you daddy.
