

Franklin B. Turpin Kellum

September 13, 1913 - January 1, 2003

Franklin B. Turpin Kellum, was born on September 5, 1913 to the late Lucinda Turpin and raised by adoptive parents, Helen and Solomon Kellum. He was called to Glory on January 1, 2003. He received his education at Unionville Elementary School and Robert Russa Morton Jr. and Sr. High Schools in Easton, MD. He later relocated to Baltimore at the age of 32, where he worked as a Master Chef at Towson State College until his retirement. He married the former Assolita Mitchell, and out of this union six children were born; Ernesto, Errol, Carlos, Elena, Ricky and Lola. Being a dedicated family man, he and his wife also opened their home on Homewood Avenue, as second parents to many family members, including Theresa Maheia Cunningham who preceded him in death and Aaron Green, Raymond Patten, Wellington Mitchell, Denver Moss whom also preceded him in death, Gilda Arnold, Magna Avala, Clementine Fisher and Sister Claudina Sanz. Affectionately known by everyone as “Daddy” and “Uncle Frank,” he made friends easily with his sense of humor and quick wit. Known for his sayings such as, “one day at a time...6 in one ½ dozen in the other... Too much of anything is not good for you...Once a man twice a child”, and many more helpful words of wisdom that have guided us through life. As he was so dedicated to his late wife, Frank, never remarried and has always been known as a devoted family man and true friend. He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving children, Irma Riddick, Franklin Ernesto Kellum, Errol F. Kellum, Dolores Elena Kellum, Assolita Lola March; sister, Virginia Fisher, brother-in-law, William Fisher twelve grandchildren, Franklin, Troy, Tonja, Cory, Natalia, Victor Jr., Carmalita, Tecla, Carla, Janelle, Eric, and Maya; nine great grandchildren; two daughters-in-law, Dianne Kellum and Roslyn Kellum; one son- in law, Victor March Sr., nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by son Ricardo "Ricky" Kellum, neice- Theresa Maheia Cunningham, and son- Carlos Kellum.

“ The tears that dampen our eyes in time of mourning are tears of homesickness, tears of longing for our loved ones. But it is we who are away from home, not they! Death has been for them a doorway to an eternal home. They are still with us, lovingly and tenderly waiting for the day when we, too, will enter the doorway of our eternal home. It is such a mistake to see death as separation and nothing more. For us who believe, death is a preparation for eternal union with those we love, in peace and in joy.##imported-begin##The March Funeral Home Staff##imported-end##

“ To the entire Kellum family: I know that when you lose a loved one it is never easy, but to lose a loved one during the holiday season it makes it all the more difficult to deal with. Just remember that GOD will bring your family comfort at any time of the year, whether it be Christmas or Arbor Day. GOD knows when you are feeling your lowest and in the nick of time he'll bring you back up. He will take care of your family in your time of need. Trust in him and lean on him. He'll see you through. You're in my prayers.##imported-begin##Trish Johnson March West Receptionist##imported-end##

“ It is always difficult to lose a loved one. It is especially challenging for a family such as ours which has lost so many members within the last decade or so. But let us not forget and be comforted in knowing that the patriarch of the Kellum family will now be with God and his family in heaven. Granddad: Your "grandaughters", as you affectionately called us, will miss you. Please say hello to Daddy and tell him Dianne, Tecla, and Carla love and miss him.##imported-begin##Dianne, Carla, and Tecla Kellum##imported-end##
