

Franklin Crenshaw

July 24, 1953 - January 25, 2013

FRANKLIN CRENSHAW, the son of Isabell Perkins and the late Robert Perkins, was born on September 29, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. "Bunny," as he was fondly known, was surrounded by many loved ones. He went to his eternal reward on January 25, 2013 after a very short illness.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He received his diploma in Carpentry in 1987. He received multiple certificates from University of Maryland Medical System, Bureau of Building and Equipment Service, as well as Nursing Home Ministry. He was employed with Baltimore County and Huber Memorial Church until his untimely death. He was a dedicated member at Huber Memorial Church.

Bunny was a big fan of the Baltimore Ravens. He also enjoyed spending time with his mother, children, family and friends. He enjoyed seafood night on the weekends with his old lady, better known as Laverne. Bunny loved to hang out with his cousins, William and Gary; and they partied like no other.

He was a loving and caring man and was very devoted to being a father, son and grandfather.

He leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Isabell Perkins; three children, Chernise and Lamont Matthews, Miranda Crenshaw, along with daughter-in-law, Latisha Matthews; seven grandchildren, Josohn, Chernise, Damonta, Lamore, Mackynzie, Montreze and Malik; one great-grandchild, Kevin; three sisters, Earlene, Laverne and Reneese (sister, Renee preceded him in death); five brothers, Tyrone, Robert Jr., Darnell, Anthony, Rodney (brother, George Crenshaw preceded him in death). He cared and loved dearly his niece, Marina, also known as "Raine." He also leaves to cherish his memory: a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, as well as his loving friend, Laverne Williams.
