“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Unfortunately, death is a sad part of life at present; something so very painful and distasteful to us. It's so unnatural. Jehovah God knows better than anyone the terrible pain and sense of loss we experience as a result of losing a loved one. He desires to wipe away every tear from our eyes, and end the scourge of sickness and death off of the face of the earth forever. At 1st Cor. 15:26 he promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." So dear family, one day you have the opportunity of being reunited with your loved one again in the resurrection. John 5:28,29 tells us that one day the dead will hear the voice of God's son Jesus, and they will come out from the memorial tombs." Then God's will will be done on earth, just as it is being done in heaven. Please find comfort in his promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
