

Fred Grover Johnson

December 11, 1955 - February 19, 2002

“ I have fought a good fight. I have kept the faith. I have finished my course, and now I am ready to be offered up.” Mr. Fred G. Johnson Jr., son of the late Fred Grover Johnson, Sr. and Grace Walker, was born on December 11, 1955 in Washington, D.C. He departed this life at home on February 19, 2002 after a lengthy illness. He was educated in the Washington, D.C. Public School System. He served in the U.S. Marines. Fred furthered his education at Lincoln Technical Institute obtaining a degree in Engineering. He then established his own businesses, Johnson Enterprises, F&G Enterprises, and F&G Photography. He was united in Holy Matrimony to Carmenchita L. Tanya Rochelle McCoy. Family and friends saw him as a perceptive and strong-willed individual, yet compassionate. He was a good provider and wise counselor for family and friends. Fred loved outdoors and children. He was an avid self-made chef and a fan of “ the Redskins.” Fred’s last strongest words were the calling of Jesus Christ’s name three times. Unbeknownst to me at the time (his wife, Carmen) I did not comprehend that Fred was calling, “ The Father, The Son and the Holy Ghost.” I rejoice to say that during his lengthy illness, he fully re-accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Lord and Savior and kept the faith until his demise. Those who loved him and will cherish his memory: are his devoted and loving wife, his “ Doo,” Carmenchita; sons, Deyon and Aaron; daughters, Nicole and Evelyn; three grandsons, Tre, Steven and Stephan; his loving mother, Grace Walker; four sisters, Thomasina, Veronica, Jacqueline and Teresa; three brothers, William, Paul and Gregory; a grandmother, Beatrice Lewis; one aunt, Janie Thompson; two uncles, John Lewis and James Lewis; a mother-in-law, Lucille Rich; a father-in-law, Odell McCoy Sr.; four brothers-in-law, J.D. Williams, Elvin Brown, Odell McCoy Jr., and Franklin D. Rich Jr.; four sisters-in-law, Sarah Walker, Pamela Johnson, Tamara McCoy and Tiquora McCoy; fifteen nieces and eight nephews; a host of other relatives and friends including three devoted friends, Gary Tucker, Charles Segreto and Marty Golden.

“ Good men must die but death cannot kill their names. (Proverbs) In the end, the true message of a man is not the wealth he leaves behind but the richness of the memories he gave to others. In that respect, my husband, Fred Grover Johnson, Jr. was the most successful man I know in more ways than one. I, your wife, Carmen, shall always remember "your love." And yes, I believed you when you said "Carmen - Always remember that I love you and that no-one, no-one can take that away from you." I remember that you said "Carmen - I may not be here physically with you but I will be with you in spirit to help protect and guide you and if I can find a way back, I will come." My love for you Fred shall never die. I miss you dearly. GOD only knows how I mourn for you. So, until GOD has me to rest where you are Doo...Know that I love you and that I am still in love with you and will continue to love you forever more. Love Always & Forever, Your Wife, Carmen (Doo)###imported-begin###Mrs. Fred G. Johnson, Jr. (Carmenchita)###imported-end##
