

Fred H. Jones

August 28, 1940 - November 2, 2002

Fred H. Jones, son of the late Fred Jones and Luther T. Royster was born in Baltimore City, August 28, 1940. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and was a dedicated cab driver for Yellow Cab Company for 35 years. He was a loving, kind, caring person and always willing to help anyone. Although Fred was a very private man he saw a need in his life and indeed consented to be baptized at The Shiloh Baptist Church. In 1962, he met Jessie Gantt and a beautiful relationship blossomed. They were united in marriage, March 2, 1982. Of this union two children were born Lamont and Tyrone Jones. He also leaves to mourn his passing; sons, Fred Jones, Jr. and Anthony Jones; one daughter, Thessalonians Bull; two step-children, Ralph Gantt and Lavonia Johnson; three daughter-in-laws, Shawn Gantt, Roshell Jones and Gail Jones; nine grandchildren and great grandchildren; four sisters, Maureen Henson and Mamie Jackson of Baltimore, Md., Barbara Jones of Philadelphia, PA. Madeline Gaither of Delaware; two brothers, Gilbert Jones of Delaware, Larry Jones of Virginia, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ The tears that dampen our eyes in time of mourning are tears of homesickness, tears of longing for our loved ones. But it is we who are away from home, not they! Death has been for them a doorway to an eternal home. They are still with us, lovingly and tenderly waiting for the day when we, too, will enter the doorway of our eternal home. It is such a mistake to see death as separation and nothing more. For us who believe, death is a preparation for eternal union with those we love, in peace and in joy.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
