“ I am sorry for your loss. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more. May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalms 55:22).##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that your loved one passed away. When we lose a loved one we long for one more day; to see their smile, to hear their voice, to share their joys. One day we will no longer have to say goodbye to our loved ones, because Jehovah has promised to swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25:8 The bible promises an amazing thing; that billions will come back to life by means of a resurrection. Please read about this at Acts 24:15, John 5:28,29, and Daniel 12:2. Jehovah never desired death for any of us, and through the ransom paid by his son Jesus, it will mean salvation for many. Jesus himself said, "I am the resurrection and the life. "He who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. May this wonderful promise bring you much comfort and strengthen you to carry on. If you would like to, please contact me so that I can further share God's purpose with you.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to Mr. Hanna's family and friends. The loss of a loved one can result in great sorrow, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the hope of a resurrection, stating: "Many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and the truth found in God's Word, the Bible, comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
