

Fred Lilly Jr.

September 8, 1928 - March 1, 2012

FRED LILLY, JR., son of the late Fred Sr. and Alice Stewart Lilly, was born on September 8, 1928 in Eagle Rock, North Carolina. He departed this life on March 1, 2012 from natural causes.

Fred received his education in Eagle Rock Public Schools. He worked numerous jobs. In the beginning of his Pat Block Concrete, Inc. employment, he was given the name "Chicken" because of his small frame and age. He worked at Pat Block for twenty years, part-time at the Tower Building for several years and McCormick and Properties for fifteen years where he retired.

Fred met Louise Goodwin and a relationship blossomed in Newport News, Virginia when he spent time with his sister who lived two doors away. They were joined together in civil matrimony on August 19, 1949. From this union eleven children were born.

He was kind and generous to his loved ones and friends. You knew he loved you when he would gently read you your rights. Many of the children grew up sipping Pepsi from his super "Big Gulp" red cup and his sharing of "Double Bubble" gum. He enjoyed watching Western Movies and the Moon Man Connection while sitting in his favorite chair or listening to Oldie but Goodies music while sitting in his truck. One of his favorite gospel song was Cooling Water. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him.

Four sons: Donald, Ronald, James and Maverick Lilly preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Louise Lilly; five sons, George, Jerome, Thurman, Calvin and Darrell; two daughters, Brenda Hodges and Laverne Lilly; one son-in-law, Anthony Hodges; eighteen grandchildren, twenty-four great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
