

Fred Wallace Allen

September 5, 1935 - March 19, 2006

FRED WALLACE ALLEN was born in Wadesboro, North Carolina on September 5, 1935 to Leroy and Virginia Allen; the youngest of three children (Mary Louise Allen the oldest and Arthur Lee Allen the middle child). The Allen family moved to Baltimore, Maryland when Fred was ten years old. Fred was a teenager when he got a job as a cook at Johns Hopkins Hospital until he was drafted in 1958 to serve his country in the United States Army branch of the military; from which he was honorably discharged after fulfilling his duties. Fred returned to his job as a cook with Johns Hopkins Hospital after leaving the military and worked at Hopkins for a total of forty-four years. Fred loved to cook on and off the job and his hobbies were gardening, fishing and fast cars such as the Ford Mustang. Fred was an outgoing person who made a lot of friends. He leaves to mourn: one son, Frederick Wayne Allen; one brother, Arthur Lee Allen; one sister, Effie Holley; one sister-in-law, Mary Allen; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Mr. Fred Wallace Allen please except my condolences for your loss. To lose a love one can leave such a void that we wonder why, and we look for comfort from friends and family members but God's word the bible can bring comfort too. 2Corinthians 1:3,4 tells us that God (Jehovah) is a God of comfort in our tribulation and he wants to help. We may wonder if we will ever see our love ones again. At John 5:28,29 Jesus Christ says that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to a resurrection of life." We will have the opportunity to see those we have lose in death again. I am truly sorry for your lose. My Deepest Sympathy Shirel Halstead.##imported-begin##Shirel Halstead##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends on your loss. The death of a loved one is truly the most painful event in our lives. May you find comfort in the bible"s promise of a ressurection. Acts 24:15 lets us know that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." 1st John 4:8 says that "God is love". Our loving heavenly father promises that one day we will be with our loved ones again.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am sorry for your loss of Fred Wallace. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for your family. I am leaving you with scripture that may comfort your family. The scripture come for Hebrew 4:12,13 and it is as follows...For the word of God is alive and exerts power and is sharper than any two-edged sword and pierces even to the dividing of soul and spirit, and of joints and their marrow, and is able to discern thoughts and intentions of the heart. And there is not a creation that is manifest to his sight, but all things are naked and openly exposed to the eyes of him with whom we have an accounting.##imported-begin##IJT NUNNALLY##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##
