

Freddie Fields

January 17, 1966 - May 1, 2012

Our beloved one, Mr. Freddie Fields of Richmond, Virginia left us on the morning of May 1, 2012.

Freddie was born in Yonkers, New York on January 17, 1966 to Sharon Fields-Allums and Freddie Green.

Freddie was raised in Bronx, New York and attended the public school system in New York City. He was a bass guitar player in his younger years and he played for a well known rock group, Killerwatts. He was a very accomplished and really enjoyed his music. Freddie was also a well known and well loved barber. He was affectionately known as Prince, the Barber.

He is survived by both parents, siblings, Mrs Gail Bryant Robinson, Tyrone Bryant, Samuel Bryant, Wynter Fields, and Brandon Allums; daughter, Cleo Hinton Fields; a grandson, Zyon Hinton. He was preceded in death by four sisters. He also leaves to cherish his memory, many friends, and special friend, Theresa Lewis.

Freddie left this life suddenly and his memory will be cherished by his many family members and friends.

“ I met Freddie when I was 14 years old. Growing up on the streets of New York, I really didn't have much. Freddie taught me how to play bass guitar which was a life changing event for me. I'm grateful for all things he made possible for me, the things he shared with me and the good times we had

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
