

Freddie Louis Gill

August 7, 1953 - October 21, 2014

Freddie Louis Gill was born on August 7, 1953 in Palmer Springs, VA (Mecklenburg County) and is the fourth eldest child of Junious and Helen Gill. Freddie leaves to cherish his memories his son and daughter Frederic Martin and Tonika Martin.

Freddie Gill also leaves behind a daughter-in-law, Jynes Martin. He had five grandkids, Shaneka Martin, Jason Haskins, Jasmine Haskins and Jaiona Martin and Anthony Mayo. He also leaves behind brothers, sisters and in-laws, Bernard(Carolyn),Gloria(Thomas)Taylor, Louise Edwards, Edward(Katrina),James(Ruth),and Charles(Wanda).Freddie had an abundance of nieces and nephews in which he loved and cherish very much.

Freddie joined church at an early age and diligently attended Sunday school services and regular worship service alongside his brothers and sisters. Freddie received his education at Richmond Public Schools.

Freddie Gill was a devoted father, brother, friend and love one. He loved his family and friends, he loved to fish and listen to music. He was a handyman that could fix anything and he had the knowledge of an engineer, mechanic, entrepreneur, contractor, a universal master of the kitchen and cook. His family members would describe him as a jack of all trades. Freddie could fix anything and if he was not sure what to do he would always have an infamous quote (“we will work it out”).
