Tonya, My name is Jeffrey and I believe I knew your uncle but not sure if this is the right Fred Harvey from Baltimore. Could you please reach out to me at: jalanartiat@msn.com so that I may realize if this is him or not just by giving a few things that I knew about him. Thank you very much. Jeffrey Alan “ Giver of all good gifts and healer of broken hearts, comfort us now as we pay a last tribute to our beloved Fred Harvey. Console us with the knowledge that death is not an end and give us hope that we faithful shall meet again where there is no parting and no sorrow. Bless us, keep us and grant us thy peace.

“ Fred

A Memory-making Venue

Many people have places that they treasure. Those places have an unusual and special quality. They are unique.

Carl and I, along with others, treasured being with Fred. Beginning when St.

Philip's was on Eden Street in the tender years of his and our lives and continuing until now, Fred's "venue," time with him, created frameable fun and adventurous memories.

This is what I remember.

Fred gave his best slices of life as he hosted memorable conversations and gatherings.

Some may remember:

Enjoying "Fred's growing up" antics

Skiing the slopes in Alaska Tennis courts in the spring

Swimming in summer

Reunions in Roxborough

Visits from nieces and nephews

Just dropping by And particularly

Sunday After Church Brunches And "Christmas at Fred's!"

Fred loved the family and their friends. He was an explorer of life's joys and challenges, and an awesome Uncle.

And so, this September has come.

Let us bundle with a ribbon our memories and keep them in a special place in our hearts.

With the first gentle snow,

When the sun of daffodils re-appear, and summer is summery, and splendid September comes again,

Be sure to Untie the ribbon and remember Fred.
