

Freddie R. Wesley

July 20, 1935 - March 22, 2004

Freddie Roosevelt Wesley, son of the late Fannie Wesley and Frank Davis, was born on July 20, 1935. He was raised and educated in Black Stock, South Carolina. At the age of eighteen, he moved to Baltimore, Maryland where he worked and later retired from Tom Key Aluminum. He married his teenage love Sadie Wilson, and out of this union nine children were born; William, Janie, Patricia (deceased), Helen, Darnell (deceased), Zachary, Shawn, Joshua, and Latricia. His life overflowed with the love from an enormous amount of family and friends. We have all had ups and downs and Freddie was no exception, but he found peace in his last days by spending them once again with his teenage love by his side. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Sadie Wesley; four sisters, Pauline Bell, Louvenia Boyd, Diane Boyd, and Bernice Boyd; one brother, Samuel Boyd, Jr.; seven children and nineteen grandchildren; an angel's class full of nieces and nephews. He was finally blessed by having one great, great-granddaughter, Deasia Nijae Patricia Washington, and sadly most of all he leaves his second mom, Louvenia Hemphill.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures as I have been##imported-begin##sophia briscoe##imported-end##
