The Life of Frederick Douglas Johnson

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful servants. Psalm 116:15

Frederick Douglas Johnson departed this life on Saturday, January 17, 2015 at Hunter Holmes McGuire Medical Center in Richmond, Virginia with his loving wife and children by his bedside. He is the youngest child born to the late Richard Johnson, Sr. and Amelia Roane Johnson on October 1, 1945 in Richmond, Virginia.

Fred attended Armstrong High School. He joined the United States Air Force in 1963 and served his country until 1966. Fred was a proud Vietnam Veteran and a lifetime member of the Disabled American Veterans (DAV).

For many years, Fred worked as an HVAC Sheet Metal Mechanic, last working for EMC Mechanical Corporation. After many years of service, Fred retired in 2010. Fred coached with the Glen Lea Baseball League for many years and served as president in 1995. In his later years, Fred enjoyed talking politics, watching sports and spending time with his family.

He is also preceded in death by his sister, Maria J. Williams; and two brothers,

Richard Johnson, Jr. and Walter L. Johnson. Fred leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted wife of 38 years. Marsha Webster Johnson; two daughters, Felicia D. Haynes (Horace) and Jessica D. Johnson; and four sons, Frederick D. Johnson, Jr. (Stacee); Bertram L. Johnson; Boris L. Johnson (Marsha); and Douglas M. Johnson (PetaGay). He also leaves 14 grandchildren: Andre, Jerrod, Shanel, LaNiece, Boris II, Brandin, Shane, Cameron, Kameron, Taylor, Hailey, Jayla, Jaeden and Janelle; and one great-grandchild, Aiden. Fred also leaves a former wife, Bernice Johnson and sisters-in-law, Mildred Williams, Francene Anderson and Nancy Johnson; mother and stepfather-in-law, Madeline and Robert L. Dockery; and a host of cherished nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
