May 9, 1929 - September 25, 2018

Freeman Williams, son of the late Perry Williams and Ella Moultrie-Williams, was born on May 9, 1929 in Charleston, South Carolina. He attended South Carolina Public Schools and later in life moved to Baltimore, Maryland and attended Dunbar High School.

He was employed at Bethlehem Steel Corp., where he worked for 41 years. He met the love of his life, Edna Gregory and they married November 5, 1966, a union that lasted for 52 years.

He gave his life to Christ and became a diligent and faithful member of New Pilgrim Baptist Church. He loved and enjoyed singing quartet songs so he joined the Male Chorus and also joined the Sanctuary Choir.

He loved people and did whatever he could do to help them along the way. He was a man of few words, but had a very big heart. Freeman's favorite words to say was, "I am alright". No matter how he was feeling, those were his exact words every time.
