

Gail Ellen Sims

January 16, 1950 - April 17, 2026

Gail Ellen Sims was born on January 16, 1950, in Baltimore Maryland to the late Jerry and Clarice (Redding) Harden. She departed this life on April 17, 2026, at her home. Gail attended Eastern High School and later graduated from Coppin State College to pursue a career in the medical field.

In her early years, Gail worked at the C&P Telephone Company as an operator. She later transitioned to serve her community in her true passion, which was supporting patient care at Wyman Park Hospital.

At the hospital, she was known for telling jokes and putting a smile on the faces of patients.

In her personal life, Gail was a social butterfly. She enjoyed dancing and singing all over the house. Her favorite was the Diana Ross impersonations, where she would hold a brush to her mouth and sing in the mirrors. One of her favorite pastimes was spending time with her family and friends.

In more recent years, Gail was a devoted member of Redeemed Church of Christ Apostolic. She attended every Sunday faithfully. This is the place that brought her closer to God and where Gail renewed her relationship with Christ. She was proud to be a member of such a loving community.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Jerry and Clarice Harden and baby brother, Ronald Harden. She leaves to cherish her memory: brother, Jerry Harden; two sisters, Jane Harden and Clarice Burrell (Andre); several nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
