

Gail M. Walker-Akins

July 16, 1953 - August 21, 2020

Gail Marie Walker-Akins, daughter of the late James Anderson Walker and Elizabeth Virginia Thomas Walker, was born on July 16, 1954 in Olney, MD. She was called home to be with our Heavenly Father on August 21, 2020, after a brief illness.

Gail was the sixth of eight children born her parents. She was educated in Montgomery County and Baltimore County Public Schools.

She met the late Dale Eugene Akins in Baltimore, MD and they were married on July 15, 2011. No children were born to this union. They lived in Dundalk, MD. She was employed at the Vitro Corporation in Silver Spring, MD and the Genesis Nursing Home. Dale departed this life on February 28, 2016 after five years of marriage.

Gail always wanted everyone to be happy regardless of the situation they were in and offered positive words from the heart during hard times. She kept a record of birthdays and called to wish everyone well, even if she did not send a card. Gail had beautiful penmanship and wrote poems and prayers. She constantly reached out to her family to ensure closeness and togetherness and always had a good joke to make everyone laugh.

She began attending Shining Star Baptist Church located at 11832 Eastern Avenue in Middle River, MD in 2016. She accepted Christ as her Savior and sought God for direction, faith and hope. She was planning to be baptized.

Gail is survived by three sisters: Cecelia (Harvey) Guary, Pauline (Carl) LeDuff, and Colleen (Nada) Zand, special friend John Lee Ellison, and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.
