

Gail D. Willis-Booth

December 25, 1952 - May 22, 2019

GAIL DENISE WILLIS-BOOTH, daughter of the Late Alphonzo and Dorothy Willis was born on December 25, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. Gail departed this life on Wednesday May 22, 2019 at Union Memorial Hospital. In April 1977, Gail was married to William Preston Booth Sr. and out of this union were born two children.

A graduate of the Catholic High School in Baltimore, Gail furthered her education at Essex Community College where she received her Associate of Arts Degree, Morgan State University where she received her Bachelor's Degree, and Loyola College and Notre Dame, where she earned two Master's degrees. As a child, Gail was baptized at St. Francis Xavier Church.

As an adult she attended Faith United Baptist Church where she was also baptized and remained a faithful member until her health failed her.

Gail worked at various jobs; Social Security Administration, The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Morgan State University and last but not least, The Baltimore City Government, 5th District, where she went above and beyond to faithfully serve the community.

As was evidenced by her life, Gail believed strongly in education. She is lovingly remembered for gathering the neighborhood children for story time and trips to the local library. She served on the Board of the Morgan State University's Head Start program, and started the scholarship program at Faith United Church. Gail Loved the Lord, and she enjoyed studying the scriptures and faithfully attended Bible study.

Gail was a “Boss”. She was a loving, caring “no nonsense” person. She would fuss you out, set you straight, and help you out all in the same breath. Gail loved her family, especially her children and grand- children, and was willing to do anything she could to help anyone. Whether she knew you or not, if you didn’t have food, Gail would either take you to the market or give you food from her refrigerator. She was also a resourceful person. If you needed something, Gail would find it. Gail also liked to have fun and enjoyed traveling and playing cards. Gail just enjoyed life.

Gail leaves to cherish her memory: her son, William Preston Booth Jr.; a daughter, Arica Rozell Booth; two step-children, Karen Lucas and Kathryn Booth; two grandchildren, Edith Booth and Logan Booth; two sisters, Dorothea Willis and Dontai Dunham; brother-in-law, Charles Dunhan and four sisters-in-law, Thelma Massenburg, Freda Booth, Antoinette Mobley, and Joyce Booth; three godchildren, Tinika Burris, Kia Blount, and Samara Dunham; A special loving cousin, Danita Blount; two devoted and loving sister friends, Vivian Ford and Diane Cooper; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
