

Gale P. Canty-Jefferson

July 5, 1955 - September 30, 2018

GALE PATRICIA CANTY-JEFFERSON, daughter of the late Dave and Rosa (Woodard) Canty, was born on July 5, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 30, 2018.

Gale, the "baby of the family", leaves to mourn, her husband, George Q. Jefferson, and sister, Caroylun Jasmin (Arthur). She was preceded in death by her brother, David Canty.

Educated in Baltimore City Public Schools, Gale worked for a time at the Solo Cup Company as a machine operator. She found her greatest satisfaction and pride, however, as a certified tutor, helping students with their studies.

Well-known for her humorous personality and fun-loving spirit, Gale was at the heart of many family gatherings, laughing, reminiscing and telling funny stories. She was loved by many, and time spent with family and friends was precious to her.

Gale took special pleasure in caring for and spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, especially in more recent years with the welcoming of several new great-grands.

court shows, especially with her mother, Rosa, before her passing. Gale faithfully tuned into episodes of "Judge Judy"; and "Law and Order". Gale was also a lover of music and dancing, and was known to have a "cut a rug" back in the day. She and George Q ("Q" to distinguish him from the 'George Jefferson' character of the hit 70's show) spent many evenings enjoying favorites such as Aretha Franklin, Frankie Beverly and Maze, and Patti LaBelle. Gale had a nice singing voice and as a young woman, she and a couple of friends started a girl singing group. They performed at several venues including State Hospitals.

Gale's life will forever be cherished in the hearts of, : her children, Shakeeya (Anthony), Christian (Joy), Chantel, and Rosa; grandchildren; Andreuna, Ava, Brittany, Donivan, Faith, Gabrielle, Grace, Jeremiah, Skylar and Trinity; great-grandchildren, Abigail, Aubrey, Donivan Jr. and Samauri; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. She will be especially missed by her life-long friends, Diane Logan, Beverly Rawlings and Brenda Allen.
