

Garland Edward LeGrande

December 19, 1954 - December 16, 2023

Obituary

We gather to reflect on the life of Garland Edward “Tony” LeGrande, who passed away on December 16, 2023. Tony’s life was a journey that resonated with the complexities and challenges that shape the human experience.

In his leisure, Tony found solace and expression in chess, basketball, and playing pool. His service as a disabled American Veteran in the military was a testament to his commitment and a significant chapter of his life.

Garland’s education in Richmond public schools and his upbringing in the Baptist faith were foundational elements of his life. His path, marked by its unique trials and experiences, impacted those around him in profound ways.

He will be remembered by his daughter, Keyunta LeGrande; grandchildren, Khali and Rai Ferguson; mother, Ida LeGrande; and brother, Preston LeGrande. Garland’s life, with its intricacies and encounters, left a lasting impression on his family and friends.

As we commemorate Garland Edward “Tony” LeGrande, we acknowledge his life as a reflection of endurance, the impact of actions, and the varied tapestry of human existence. His memory serves as a reminder of our shared humanity, the complexities that define us, and the importance of compassion and understanding in our interactions with others.
