

Garnal Lee Deener

January 18, 1932 - March 15, 2004

Garnal Lee Deener, son of the late James Deener and Louise Davis, was born on January 18, 1932 in Charleston, West Virginia. Garnal received his education in the school system of West Virginia. He decided to leave the state of West Virginia to journey to Baltimore, Maryland, where he made his home. After moving to Baltimore, Garnal met his friend and sweetheart, Elnora Ruth Hooper. He decided that she would be his wife and life-long companion, so they were joined in Holy Matrimony in 1949. Of this union, they were blessed with six daughters and one son. His wife, Elnora, one daughter, Phyllis and his son, Michael, preceded him in death. He gained employment at the shipyards of the Bethlehem Steele Sparrows Point Plant of Maryland, until his retirement after 35 years of service. Garnal dedicated his life to the Lord and united in the fellowship of the Israel Baptist Church of Baltimore City on April 30, 1961, then under the pastorate of the late Rev. Dr. Edmond D. Meade, Sr. He remained a faithful servant of Israel, even during his illness. He served on the Senior Ushers until his health no longer allowed him to minister. He loved his Pastor, Rev. Rev. H.W. Wilson and his church family. He loved the Lord and knew of His tender grace and almighty mercy. Garnal especially enjoyed talking with his prayer partner, Sis. Willie Mae Cherry. Garnal loved his family with all of his heart and took great pride in them. He was a devoted husband and father-one of God's angels. He touched the lives of everyone he came in contact with. On Monday, March 15, 2004, God in His divine wisdom, sent His angels down to take Garnal from this earthly life in that heavenly kingdom.

above. Gernal leaves to cherish precious memories: five daughters, Sheila Wall, Brenda Deener, Jessie Spriggs, Pamela Deener and Elnora Brown; eight grandchildren, Lee Deener, Ashley Deener, Tramaine Washington, Kelly Deener, Shanta Deener, Sierra Spriggs, Justin Spriggs and Kadiqua Deener; one sister, Marie Knight; daughter-in-law, Alphonia Deener; nephew and nieces, James and Rosetta Martin; brother-in-law, Edward Hooper; sisters-in-law, Eloise Hooper and Rosetta Arrington; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. By loving, you taught us to love, By trusting, you taught us the meaning of faith. By giving of yourself, you taught us to care. Thank you, Dad. From Your Loving Children

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolence to the family. Our family finds much comfort from John 5:28,29 in times of deep sorrow. Please notice its loving promise- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to resurrection of life." May these words give you much solace in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
