

Garnett Lee Garnett

November 2, 1937 - November 6, 2018

Garnett Lee Garnett was born on November 2, 1937 in Lincolton, Ga. to Thomas Wheat and Bessie Mae Wheat. She had one brother Robert Wheat who preceded her in death. Garnett attended Lincolton County Public Schools in Lincolton, Ga. She was married to the late J.W. Harris and later to the late Louis Garnett. She was a member of Mt. Zion under the leadership of Bishop Edith Magnum. She worked as Dover's Poultry and Blue Screen Printing Company. Garnett loved people and they loved her. She loved gardening and she was a great cook. She loved to dress and go out to eat. And, she loved to eat! She was loving and kind hearted. She took in so many people to let them live with her. She loved them like they were her own. She would do anything to help anyone with love but, she would also tell you about yourself. She loved family, and she loved me and my one brother. She sacrificed so much for us so that we could have a great life. If she wasn't in church she would make sure my brother and I were. She always tried to have us out dress everyone.

My mom loved to show off and make you laugh. She loved to cook a big dinner on the special holidays and she loved them all them especially Christmas. Her residents was a place of beautiful lights, trees and an overload of beautiful decorations. She always told us to do the right thing to people and God will bless us because, you reap whatever you sow.

My mom loved to shop and she loved her flowers, plants and teddy bears. She also loved nice things. She loved God and always told you to pray, trust God and do the right thing. She loved to get gifts or something every time you see her so that she could brag about it and show it off.

She leaves behind, her daughter Bessie Wallace (Bishop Jonathan Wallace Sr.) her son Gary Garnett (Phaedra Garnett) Granddaughters Garnett Denise, Sophia and Jennifer (Leonard Badham) Grandson Jonathan Jr.. Granddaughter Jasmine Garnett, Great Grandson Edward (Megan Wallace) Great-grands Ajai Wallace, Roman Gabriel, Samya Wallace, Great-Great Grands Kai and Eli Wallace, Grans-children little Gary and Gia Garnett, her other children Ashley Barrett, Michelle Addison, Toya Robinson, Kmar Robinson, Andre and Maklika, Kwama Smith, Verlon Lofton, Iesha Vaughn, Autumn Sellers, Godsons Lamont Barnes and Tommy Webb. My mom loved all of her children and they were all good to her. She also leaves behind a lifelong friend who loved her very much Mrs. Lucille McGougan. And two other special friends Annie McNeil and Missionary Eileen Payne.
