

Garnette Warren Atkins

November 12, 1957 - July 26, 2008

GARNETTE WARREN ATKINS, son of the Charles Sr. and Eunice Mae Atkins, was born on November 12, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on July 26, 2008 after battling a lengthy illness. Garnette was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was very smart and gifted as a cook. He enjoyed cooking and was very passionate about it. He was always the person to take charge of the grill at family gatherings. He enjoyed spending quality time with his family, and nothing was ever too great to do when it came to his family. Garnette, being the youngest son of eight children, was strong-willed, determined to do and have things his way, thoughtful and kind to all who met and knew him. Garnette was a special person to many people. He will be greatly missed. He was preceded in death by one brother Charles Jr. and two sisters, Charlene Lewis and Angela Atkins. Garnette leaves to cherish his memory: three sisters, Robeson Parker, Schunrear and Rena and one brother, Frederick Atkins; a very special niece and close friend, Lita Colston; devoted nephew, Gary Lewis (Tony); a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends too numerous to name.
