

Garrett Fenwick

July 28, 1969 - October 29, 2013

Garrett Alphonso "Gary" Fenwick

Garrett was called home to his eternal resting place on October 29, 2013 in Baltimore Maryland. Garrett was born on July 28, 1969, in Leonardtown Maryland. He is the beloved son of Sandra Plowden Fenwick and the late James Alphonso (Bootsie) Fenwick. Garrett was Sandra and Bootsie's second child and only son.

Garrett was educated through the St. Mary's and Prince George's County Public School Systems. As a youngster, Garrett enjoyed working side-by-side with his dad at Fenwick's Tavern, better known as the "SHOP". After high school he worked in construction and at other odd jobs. Garrett enjoyed attending basketball games and fishing with his dad. Soon after school Garrett was left disabled, but he never gave up and was determined as ever not to have his quality of live affected by his fate. He could do things with his wheel chair that most couldn't do with two functioning legs. Growing up in Oakville, Garrett spent a lot of time at his second home, the "Scribers", were they enjoyed outdoor activities, parties, and good food. Garrett also enjoyed spending time with his special friend and life partner Julie.

Garrett loved spending time with his family and sons, attending gatherings with friends, playing cards and watching football. Garrett had an infectious smile and laugh, but would be so serious when he was making a point or dropping knowledge about life issues.

Garrett leaves to cherish his memories, his mother, Sandra; two sisters, Yolanda Fenwick-Williams (Charles), and Christal; sons, Travis, Alonzo, and Marcus; nephews, Malik and Angelo; niece, Jasmin Fenwick; uncle, James "Bubby" Plowden; aunts, Catherine Munos and Barbara Fenwick. He also leaves several great friends that he grew up with and has been there through thick and thin, Terran Berry and Anthony Scriber; in addition to a host of other relatives, cousins, family and friends.

Garrett was preceded in death by his father, Bootsie, his grandparents, and several aunts and uncles.

“ I send my condolences to the family. Garret was such a big part of my childhood. We spent so much time playing in the woods/playhouse at his home in Oakville. I know this is a very difficult time for the family, but you must rely on God to help you thru. Sandra, Yolanda, and Christal know that I'm here for you. May he RIP and you be consoled in knowing he's with his Father (both of them.) Love you so much.

“ I am sorry to read about the passing of your loved one. The loss of a loved one grieves the heart and makes us yearn for tomorrow, when Jehovah God keeps the promise he made at Rev 21:3-4 when death, mourning, outcry, pain and sorrow will be eliminated. These things that cause mankind so much pain will be eliminated

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
