“ I will always remember my friend, Gary Burton, Sr. While these last few years were particularly challenging, Gary never gave up. He truly believed that God was with him in his struggle and that God would take care of him. We once talked about this day, and I asked him if he was afraid. With a tear in his eyes, he simply said, "we've all got to go sometime." He knew that God loved him in spite of his mistakes and he loved God for that. Family, treasure Gary's gift of memories and remember to take care of each other.
