GARY DONNELL JOHNSON, son of Mary L. Johnson, and the late Ernest Wright, was born on March 1, 1962, in Baltimore, Maryland. He was called from this life unto eternal rest on Monday, October 22, 2007. Gary was reared in Baltimore, and was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He accepted Christ at an early age and entered into Christian discipleship at St. Phillips Lutheran Church of Baltimore, where he remained faithful until his demise. Gary was briefly employed with the Janitorial Maintenance Company. Later, he found employment as a clerk in a local Convenience Store where he met neighbors and made friends with many. He was truly loved by the tenants in the Apartment Building where he lived. Surely, No one was a stranger to him. If he could not get someone to drive him to a flea market, he would just take a bus. He was an advent lover of all types of music and owned many CDs, DVDs, Videos, and Cassettes. He also enjoyed going to the theater to see the latest or most talked about movie. Gary leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Mary L. Johnson; daughter, Monica Johnson; brother, Darrin Ross; six stepsisters, Sylvia Smith, Ann Cooper, Diane Ayres, Janet Palmer, Fatima Ball, and Sharon Abraham; stepbrother, Charles L. (Joyce) Ross, Jr.; stepbrother-in-law, Archer Smith; aunt, Pollie Kimbrough of Farmville, Va.; uncle, Abraham (Olivia) Johnson; five devoted cousins, Royal Anderson (Gwen) of Shewsbury,

“ May I extend many condolences and prayers to your family at this time. Know that your loved one, Gary is resting in Jehovah's memory, and one will awaken from sleep by means of the resurrection. Jesus resurrected many from the sleep of death while he was here on earth, including his good friend Lazarus. Notice how Jesus likened death to sleep. At John 11:11 he told his disciples; "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep." And as that chapter further shows, he did bring Lazarus back to life, and it is his desire to bring all those in the grave back to life as well. John 5:28,29. He said that was one of the reasons that he came to earth to sacrifice his precious blood. He said at John 10,10, "I have come so that they might have life, and have it in abundance. Out of Jehovah and Jesus's great love for mankind, is why your Gary will one day live again. May the hope of the resurrection bring you much comfort in the days ahead.###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##
